AMUSEMENTS.

Olgo. the Countess Von Hatzfeldt, it The Little Duchess.

It has always been conceded that Anna Held's "The Little Duchess" is the most expensive comic opera of its day. As a matter of fact, it has been done that surmounting point of actual outlay. This season the Countess is using the Held production entirely, and if the criticism is giving, with her supporting company a much better show than the French comedienne offered. The cast is large and most adequate while the beauty chorus is large and was especially chosen for its fitness in the art of dancing and singing and in the work of giving accurately the difficult evolutions which the piece calls for. "The Little Duchess" will be presented at the Opera House Jan. 11.

LEGISLATURE BEGINS WORK.

Adjourns Till Monday To Await Committees.

GOOD PLACE FOR RIVES.

Contests Will Take Up Much Of The Time Next Week.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 5.—For the next two days members of both houses will be speculating as to the make-up of the different committees. Both the Senate and House adjourned yesterday until Monday to permit Lieut. Gov. Thorne and Speaker Henry R. Lawrence to make up their committees. Both have said they will not be ready to announce them until Monday.

Senator Conn Linn is tipped as chairman of the committee on Education and Senator Frank Rives will be chairman of the committee on Charitable Institutions.

About all that was done yesterday was to draw contest committees in the Senate and House to dispose of the numerous contests from Louisville. Senator Rives is on one of them and Representative Southall is on two.

A few bills were introduced, one by Senator Rives asking for an appropriation of $35,000 for needed improvements at the Western Asylum.

Revenue Law.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 4.—The question of whether the present revenue statute of the State is in need of radical changes, or whether it meets the demands of a growing commonwealth is one that will consume much time during the session now fairly started. The report of the special committee of the Senate, created in the closing hours of the last regular session, was filed yesterday with that body, and represent the views of those who favor and will urge changes and amendments to the present law on the subject. The biennial report of the State Auditor Hager, also laid before the assembled legislators yesterday, may be said to represent the views of the opposition to radical changes. The members of the special commission have given much time and thought to the matter, as has Judge Hager, who daily sees the present law in operation, and the views of the committeemen and the auditor will be forcibly presented to the legislative committees having the subject in hand.

Commissioner's Report.

The report of the special commission was given in full in The Times of yesterday. In the report of Auditor Hager that official sets out in detail the condition of the treasury, its resources and the demands annually made upon it and its several funds, and concludes that the amounts apportioned to the several funds are inadequate to meet the demands upon them, as, while the demands upon the sinking fund are approximately the same each year those against the general expenditure fund are constantly increasing. Out of this latter fund must come the money to build the new capitol, and the Auditor says that unless some means of augmenting this fund is provided a large deficit will naturally result.

Congressman's Sister.

Mrs. Minor Morris, said to be a sister of Representative Hull, of Iowa, was ejected from the White House, dragged some distance on the wet sidewalk and then huddled off in a cab to the House of Detention. She had called at the White House to see the President on business, it is said, and when, on being told she could not see him, she declared she would remain till she did see him. Orders for her ejection are said to have been given by one of the Executive's assistant secretaries.

COUNCIL MEETING

Mayor In Inaugural Address Discusses City Matters.

ANNUAL REPORT MADE.

Standing Committees For 1906 Named by Mayor Meacham.

The regular January meeting of the City Council met last night.

The new mayor, Chas. M. Meacham, delivered an inaugural address discussing at length many matters in detail. The police force, needed improvements, a public park, a stock law, profanity on the streets, need of a patrol wagon, neglected ordinances, extension of fire limits, untaxed franchises, abstrusion of side walks, the social evil, Sunday closing, the Board of Health, financial matters and other subjects were touched upon and recommendations made.

The following standing committees for 1906 were appointed:

Finance.—Jackson, Davis, Twyman.

Corporations—Ware, Armstrong, Clark.

Streets and Sidewalks.—Twyman, Jackson, Davis.

Fire Department—Twyman, Ware, Glass.

Cemetery and Workhouse—Davis, Jackson, Twyman.

Buildings—Clark, Ware, Glass.

Grievances—Armstrong, Clark, Glass.

Public Grounds—Davis, Armstrong, Glass.

Publicity and Promotion—Jackson, Davis, Ware.

The usual accounts were allowed and the reports from the various departments submitted and passed upon.

The resignation of Geo. E. Randle, Chief of the Fire Department, was reported by the Mayor. Mr. Randle is at the head of one of the departments of the Forbes Manufacturing Co., and his business exactions make it necessary to give up his official position. He has served the city long and faithfully and his resignation occasions general regret.

IN CITY'S FAVOR

Was Decision in Litigation of Cumberland Telephone Co.

The case of the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company against the city of Evansville has been decided by the United States District Court at Chicago, in favor of the city. The case had been in court for nearly five years. The city contended that the company operated there without a franchise. The company claimed they had a perpetual franchise that had been transferred to it from another company. The company brought an injunction suit against the city seeking to prevent it interfering with the company's property there.

TO CIRCUIT COURT

These "Telephone" Cases will Be Taken.

In the cases of William Cochran and Corliss Corman against A. B. Johnson, of Crofton, in which the jury found for plaintiff in the sum of $50 damage, in each case, defendant this week filed notice of appeal to the circuit court. The cases were recently tried in the quarterly court.

The Weather.

For Kentucky: Fair Saturday. No decided temperature change.

Manuel Thompson, col., died Wednesday of Bright's disease at his home near Herndon, aged 54 years.

CONTESTANT EUROPEAN TRIP

Miss Minnie Armistead's Name Entered In Courier-Journal's Race.

FOUR COUNTIES VOTE.

Prize Is a Free Trip Of Seven Weeks For Europe Next Summer.

The Courier-Journal has formulated a series of voting contests by which nineteen ladies between the ages of 20 and 45 years will be chosen by the votes of its subscribers to be presented with a tour to Europe next July, all expenses paid. The territory permitted to compete has been divided into districts. The Eleventh district is composed of the counties of Christian, Trigg, Todd and Butler.

The friends of Miss Minnie Armistead, of this city, have formally entered her name in the contest and will put up the strongest possible fight for her as the candidate from Christian county. Miss Armistead, is the only daughter of the well known druggist, Dr. J. R. Armistead and is one of the city's popular and deserving young ladies. There have so far been no other entries in the race from this district, reported to the Kentuckian.

TWO ACCIDENTS

And in Each Case a Bone Was Broken.

Crofton, Ky., Jan. 5.—Esquire Jas. W. Orten, a prominent citizen who resides about eight miles North of this place, was the victim of a bad accident this morning, one that will lay him up for some time. Esq. Orten was filing a circular saw at his mill, when the machinery started up. His clothes caught in the teeth of the saw, and he was thrown violently forward, one leg being broken near the ankle. He was otherwise bruised and injured, but will recover.

Henry McCord, who resides about two miles East of Crofton, was the other victim. Mr. McCord was taking down tobacco from the top of his barn Wednesday, when he fell to the ground. The tier pole on which he stood also came down with him and fell on his left leg, breaking the limb between the knee and hip. Surgeons reduced the fracture and Mr. McCord is getting along very well.

TWO FIRES.

Grocery Damaged and a Cabin Destroyed.

Two small fires occurred in the city Thursday. About 7 o'clock in the morning Mr. Mathew Charlton's store on west Nineteenth street was discovered in flames. The fire department was on hand in a very few minutes and the blaze was put out. The stock, however, was ruined. The loss was covered by insurance. The second fire occurred about 1 o'clock p. m., when a cabin on Mr. N. B. Edmunds' premises, South Liberty street, burned. The building was occupied by Eliza Parrish, colored. The loss is probably $200.

SHIPPED BY EXPRESS.

Runaway Children Thus Sent Back Home.

Los Angeles, Jan. 3.—Tagged "subject to examination and approval," Arthur and Clyde Slamal, who ran away from their home in Redlands, Cal., were sent to their parents by express, C. O. D., by the police here to-day. The parents paid the express charges.

ABOUT $4,000,000

To Be Spent On N. and E. Division of I. C. Road.

The most extensive and expensive piece of railroad work done in Middle Tennessee and Kentucky since the completion of the Tennessee Central railroad has been begun by the Illinois Central railroad on the Nashville division, says the American. The entire division is to be rebuilt from Nashville to Evansville, and will be laid with 85-pound steel rails.

During the past few days the company has put several hundred men to work on the line between Nashville and Hopkinsville, and Tuesday afternoon had 523 men at work on the track between these points. These men are working on the track exclusively, and a number of other gangs are at work on stations and other buildings of the company.

The company will add another gang of about 100 men who will begin at the Cumberland river bridge, and ballast the track with rock from there to meet the gang working south from Hopkinsville. This particular contract calls for about 23,000 cubic yards of crushed rock ballast which, including material to be gathered along the line, will ballast about twenty-five miles. Two work trains and scores of men are now employed along the line broadening the roadbed and cutting out the cuts to standard gauge. Many of the bridges will be rebuilt, and altogether the work to be done on the division within a year will cost in the neighborhood of $4,000,000.

On the Road.

Squire Wm. S. Davison has accepted a position with the Owensboro Wagon Co. as traveling salesman and will start out on his first trip next Monday. His territory embraces Kentucky and Tennessee.

212 SOUTH MAIN STREET.
JAN. 6, 1906.

The announcement is made in Columbus, O., that the anti-pass agreement among railroads of the Central Traffic Association has virtually been broken.

In the past ten days several severe earthquakes have been felt both in Nicaragua and Costa Rica. At Mayagua a few buildings were ruined but no one was killed.

The anti-administration forces are trying to induce Senator Blackburn to run for governor next year. It is said that the Senator prefers to have Senator McCreary run for governor and let him make another race for the senate at the same time.

Gov. Vardaman, of Mississippi, in his annual message to the Legislature, takes strong grounds against public education for negroes. He says the $500,000 spent for negro schools is worse than wasted and that the negro race is deteriorating every year. Fortunately for the good of the country, which demands enlightened citizenship, there are but few Vardamans. Education and Christianity go hand-in hand and no race is hurt by religion.

Many People in Social Swim Christmas Week.

There never were as many parties in and around Kennedy as there have been during the past ten days. The Sunday school children of Cedarburg had a Xmas tree. It was a brilliant affair. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers. It was dazzling to the eye and Dr. Nash, as Santa Claus, was fine and some of the little girls rendered some beautiful pieces and a great many Xmas gifts were distributed among the children and old persons. It was the most brilliant entertainment that has ever been given in this neighborhood. The children were happy.

There was a dance at Mrs. Elizabeth Humphries'. A good many young folks were present and all enjoyed themselves.

There was an entertainment at Mrs. T. A. Jones'. It is useless to say that the young people enjoyed themselves, for Mrs. Jones and little girls know how to entertain and make every one have a nice time.

There were several other entertainments in this vicinity. We have had a good many visitors during the holidays.

Mr. Maurice Allensworth, of Texas, visited Robt. Smith.

Mr. Winston Davis made a flying trip here.

Galloway Morris, of Memphis, spent the holidays with his uncle, Thomas Barker, Sr. Miss Matie Barker spent several days in Hopkinsville Xmas. Miss Luree Galbreath, of Hopkinsville, and Miss Corinne Sedberry, of Nashville, came down and spent a day and night with Mrs. Dr. Rollow.

Miss Emma Harrison, of Palmyra, Tenn., Miss Mary Moore, of Dotsonville, Tenn., Messrs. Brad and Richard Martin, of Dotsonville, Mr. and Mrs. Coulter Neblett, of Clarksville, Tenn., Leo Daniel, of Nashville, Miss Mattie Curd and Mr. Moore, of Arkansas, were visitors of Mrs. T. A. Jones Xmas.

Miss Patty Partley, of Hopkinsville, and little sister, spent several days with their aunt, Mrs. T. J. Baynham, Xmas.

The Misses Moody, of Clarksville, are visiting Mrs. Grey of Hensietown, Miss Pearl Acre, of Dotsonville, Tenn., Miss Mattie Leigh, the dark eyed beauty of West Fork, Tenn., and Miss Mattie Morrison, of Ringgold, Tenn., were visitors of Mrs. Ira Barber. Mr. T. A. Williams left for Elkton, where he will make his future home.

T. J. Baynham's children have the whooping cough.

Dr. Buggles, of Iowa, came down yesterday and spent the day hunting.

G. E. Baynham spent Christmas week in Cadiz and Cerulean.

Tom Davis, the mail carrier, has a new wagon.

P. C. Sallee is in his new store at Thompsonville.

Dr. Rollow is having a nice office built.

The Home Telephone is doing a nice business, getting new subscribers every day. ANCN.

TOBACCO PLANTERS.

Executive Committee Discusses Matters.

Glenraven, Tenn., Jan. 4.—The Executive Committee of the Dark Tobacco Growers' Association met here yesterday, and the business not being completed, an adjourned meeting was held to-day at Guthrie. Chairman Ewing carefully explained every detail connected with the deal with the Imperial Tobacco Company, after which he read the contract, and invited any one present to ask him or Vice President Barker any question concerning it they wished. The discussion which followed was general and free, and in view of the very thorough explanation which had been made by the Chairman, it was the consensus of those who spoke that it was the best side of any that has been made by the Association. The keynote of it all was that the Association would not only ratify this contract, but would assist the committee in carrying it out in letter and spirit. At noon Mrs. Ewing served luncheon. The afternoon was devoted to secret meeting of the Executive Committee.

The Uniform Rank K, of P. have postponed the election of officers until next Friday night.

TUBERCULOSIS HOME.

Project Of Ex-Kentuckians Living In Denver.

The Kentucky Club, of Denver, Colo., is projecting a plan to erect a tuberculosis home for Kentuckians who may seek the tonic climate of the Western mountains. "The Kentucky Home Association" has been organized under the auspices of those furthering the project. The members of the Association are ex-Kentuckians resident in Denver, and number twelve of the most prominent former citizens of this State, who have made the Western city their home.

The plan is to erect a commodious building beyond the city, on one of the interurban lines, surrounded by twenty-five to fifty acres of open park land. The building will contain administrative offices, dining rooms, kitchens, library and sun rooms, while radiating from it will be spacious avenues lined by comfortable tents, in which the health seekers may live and enjoy the full benefit of the stimulating and salubrious mountain air.

Members of Association.

The Kentucky Home Association consists of the following twelve members of the Denver Kentucky Club: Judge Sterling B. Toney, of Louisville; Willard B. Lay, of Covington; Ruff Hardest, of Bloomfield; Judge Caldwell Yeaman, of Henderson; William R. Ramsey, of Lexington; John H. P. Voorhies, of Richmond; John H. P. Voorhies, of Lexington; Mrs. Ida Carter Dameron, of Newport; Mrs. Susie D. Carstarpher, of Louisville; Mrs. Ida M. Monarch, of Owensboro; Miss Generose White, of Pewee Valley, and Henry V. Johnson, of Georgetown, all now living in Denver. Henry V. Johnson is President.

OLD VIRGINIA CHERROOTS

Package of 3 for 5 Cents

(A cheroot is a cigar made without the head)

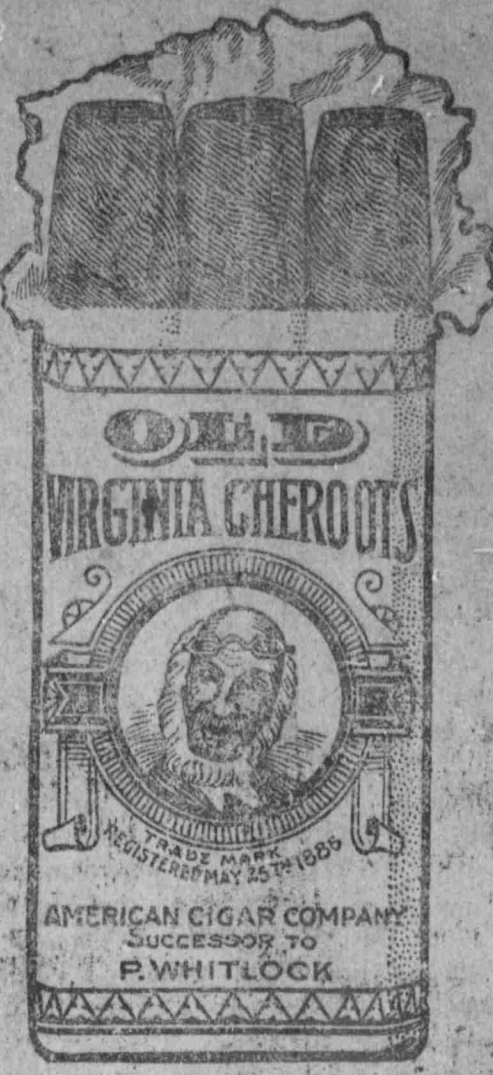

A good part of the cost of a cigar goes into the workmanship.

The "bunching" of the tobacco for the filler takes a little time. The rolling of the filler in the one piece of leaf which is called the "binder," takes a little more time. The cutting and rolling of the outside leaf or "wrapper" takes a little more.

But it is the finishing-operation of forming the "head" that takes most of the time, most of the skill, and costs most of the money.

And yet it's nothing in the world but waste,—for the first thing you do is to clip off that "head" that you have paid your good money for, and throw it away.

If the dealer clipped off the heads of three good five-cent cigars and handed them all three to you for 5 cents, you would call it a bargain,—and that's exactly the kind of trade you make when you pay 5 cents for 3 Old Virginia Cheroots.

A cheroot is only a cigar with its head cut off—and when you buy three Old Virginia Cheroots for 5 cents you pay the right price for three good smokes, and nothing else.

The filler is made from the short leaves and selected clippings of five choice grades of domestic tobacco—blended to give just the combination of agreeable strength and mild fragrance required to make a good smoke.

Not only a bargain in price, but good. Not only good, but clean. Made by modern processes in the biggest and cleanest cigar factory in the world.

A million sold every day—you can get them at any cigar counter in the country.

Sold wherever they sell tobacco

WRITTEN STATEMENT

From Postmaster General In Frankfort Mail Matter.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 2.—Of interest in connection with the senatorial contest in progress at Frankfort is a statement made by Postmaster General Cortelyou today. At the request of Senator Blackburn, the Post-office Department investigated the charge that mail for the Senator had been tampered with at Frankfort. The Postmaster General, in a written statement, says: "Referring to the investigation made by the Postoffice Department to ascertain the facts in the case of irregular handling of mail at Frankfort, Ky., the report of the Post-office Inspector has been received. It shows that the mistreatment of it was due to the carelessness of clerks in the Frankfort post-office. No evidence that the mail was tampered with designedly in the Frankfort post-office or elsewhere was found."

BURLEY GROWERS

Will Organize and Curtail the Tobacco Crop.

At a mass meeting of tobacco growers held at Versailles this week steps were taken to organize the Burley Tobacco Growers' Union of Kentucky. A compact was adopted, copies of which will be presented at mass meetings that are to be called in every county seat throughout the Burley tobacco district for signatures. The compact binds the members of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Union of Kentucky to obey all orders of the board of control, to be composed of one member from each county, and to do all in their power to promote the welfare of the union. The object is to control the area of Burley tobacco to be grown. The organizers contemplate that no Burley tobacco shall be grown in 1907.

Wednesday Night's Services Were Not What Might Have Been Expected.

Wednesday night the crowd at the Baptist church was probably a little larger than those of the two previous nights, but owing to the fact that the attraction at the Tabernacle was to be attended by a greater part of the audience, the earnestness and enthusiasm was somewhat dampened by the apprehension that the services would not close early enough for witnessing the entire program.
There is no doubt that the audience room would have been nearly filled had there been nothing to attract the men elsewhere. Foreseeing this, announcement had been made by Mr. Palmer that the beginning of the program at the Tabernacle had been set for 8:45 in order not to interfere with the services at the church. But still there seemed to be a lack of interest on the part of some of the most enthusiastic regular attendants. Some left before the conclusion of the service, which was deeply regretted, and this is the only unpleasant feature thus far of the series of meetings.

Mr. Card, at the request of Mr.
Palmer, delivered a most interesting talk to the audience. He told of his life before his conversion. He had been a confirmed drunkard and carried more for whisky than for his wife and children. Being pushed from a car in Chicago just as he was trying to board it while he was drunk, he was seen by a lot of boys, who were just ready to have some fun out of him, when his little boy happened to find him, drove the boys off and raised his head and spoke the word "Papa!" He aroused from his stupor and called on God to help him overcome his enemy, drink, and he did it. He made a powerful appeal to the men to give themselves to God, who will help them. His remarks were listened to with marked attention, and no doubt will prove of great help.

Mr. Palmer then made a short talk, after which he called upon those wanting an interest in his prayers to raise their hands. Several complied.
After the audience was dismissed a short after-meeting was held and one man made a full profession.

Wednesday Afternoon.

One of the best and most helpful addresses delivered during the meetings was made by Mr. Palmer at the ladies' meeting Wednesday afternoon. There were quite a number of men present and a large number of ladies. Mr. Palmer took as the basis of his remarks the appeal of Martha to the Savior to bid Mary assist her in her household duties and his reply that Mary had chosen the better part. He touched on many incidents in his life at home and abroad and the lesson of patience he has learned from his blind wife, who retired at night with perfect sight and awoke the next morning hopelessly blind. His wife is a great inspiration to him, and though away from home almost the entire year, his wife encourages him in his work by telling him that she has chosen it for him. He finds that here in Hopkinsville, as elsewhere, there are ladies who want to work for the Master, but do not know where to begin. He told them to go to their pastors, but, above all, to go to God for direction. It was a grand, inspiring talk and will greatly help those who heard him. His call for ladies to signify their desire to have a part in the closing prayer was answered by several. After a fervent prayer by Mr. Card the congregation was dismissed by Rev.
E. H. Bull.

Thursday Night.

Thursday night was by far the best meeting of any during the week.
The audience room was filled. A special invitation to the local lodge of Odd Fellows had been accepted and quite a number went in a body, but they formed a small part of the congregation. The singing was better than at any other time, and there seemed to be more interest than had heretofore prevailed.

Mr. Palmer's subject was "The Life of a Gambler." He gave a brief sketch of his early life. His mother died when he was five years old; he was a street Arab in Cincinnati; he began life as a boy by selling papers and blacking shoes; then he learned the printer's trade and afterwards sold leather and harness (and he is still dealing in harness—the harness of salvation, and it never wears out, breaks or has to be re-newed—it is always bright and new); after two years he and his friend bought out the firm in Chicago and did a large business, employing over a hundred men. He owned his own home, had his own carriage, played his part in politics, had many friends and was respected by all who knew him. He learned to play cards in a Christian home—and that is where all gamblers get their start. They never think they will become professional gamblers. Then he got to going occasional to the gambling houses. At that time laying down a ten dollar bill on what he thought might be the winning card didn't hurt his pocket—he was able to stand it. But he took the gambling fever. One professional gambler will suck the life-blood out of twenty-two young men. There never has been a prescription written that will cure the gambling fever. God is the only one who can cure it—all desire for doing the thing has to be taken out of the man, and God is the only one who can do this. The gambling fever, soon caused him to lose his business, his home, his horses and carriage, his wife, ambition everything. He became a tramp. Out in Nebraska he slept under a shelter that had been built by another hobo.
He dreamed of home, his child and his loving wife, and when he awoke the drizzling rain was falling in his face, and he realized what he had fallen to. He resolved, with God's help, to reform. He started afoot to go to Chicago. After getting as far as St. Louis he met a Swede who was shipping some hogs to Chicago and he went into the city with the hogs. Then he found his way into a mission. A man was talking who had lived the same life as himself and been converted. He heard him time and again and he at last learned that the converted man possessed something that he did not. He followed him to his home after the service, saw him pull out his latch-key, enter the door, saw the gas go out—and right there and then he was determined to get what the other man had. He went out to the Lake front, out of money, no friends to help him, and the clothes he had on not worth sixty-five cents. But he was determined to have what the other man had, and looking up to God he promised him if he would give it to him that he would give the Gospel message to other men. Like a flash God gave him what he wanted, and that is why he is here tonight. Holding it up, he said: "Men, I have my own latch-key now. See it. At any hour, day or night, I can go into my own home. That is what God has done for me. All desire for gambling is gone. I stand before you the equal of any man living—God-created and Christ-crowned." There is one place in this world where all men are equal—in God's kingdom. The gambling fever is worse than whiskey drinking. One Saturday night he went to a gambling hell and threw away the money that was to buy his wife's Sunday dinner and the medicine that his child needed. Gambling is HELL.

He wouldn't touch a card with a pair of tongs. Gamblers never want their business known by their children. There is not a child in Hopkinsville that would like to be told by another that their father is a gambler. There must be something very wrong when a man won't let his own family know what his business is. But God can take away all desire for the habit. He took it away from me. He used to go into the dens wearing gloves, a cane under his arm and a plug hat on his head (he is glad to have a soft hat now); policemen would lift their hats to him on the street; for ten years he was a tramp, and when he went to Chicago he went from St.
Louis in a car with hogs, one of the policemen who used to lift their hats to him rapped him on the shin with his billy and told him to get out of his resting place on the sidewalk and move on. He used to ride on side-door sleepers (box cars), but now he travels on a Pullman! He has paid the price for leading the life of a gambler, and it has been an awful price—it cost him $100,000 in money, to say nothing of the loss of manhood, friends, wife's respect and all the joys of man's home. He was the victim, but now, by the grace of God, he is the victor. So intensely earnest was the speaker and wrapt the attention of his hearers that the dropping of a pin on the carpeted floor could almost have been heard during the entire talk. Mr. Palmer was almost prostrated and his voice nearly gave out at the end of his message.

Friday Afternoon.

The attendance of the ladies at the afternoon services has been very good during the week, about the same proportion as that of the men at night. Yesterday afternoon Mr.
Palmer's subject was "Peter at the Fire, Peter in the Fire and Peter on Fire." The hour at which we close our forms precludes our giving a synoptical report of his remarks. He talked to a good audience, composed of ladies and gentlemen, and it was one of the best afternoon meetings of the series.

Friday Night.

The meetings were brought to a close last night. Mr. Palmer's presentation of "The Equipment of a Man" was heard by a large audience and was one of the best of the five addresses that he has delivered here, and will be long remembered.
Both Mr. Palmer and Mr. Card speak in the highest terms of our city and people, and will hold in loving remembrance the courtesy and kindness which they have received here.

Meetings Next Week.

Protracted services will follow those of the Gideons at the First Presbyterian and Methodist churches. Mr. Terhune, who is to conduct the services at the First Presbyterian church, will preach his first sermon Monday night, and Rev.
P. H. Davis, who is to assist Rev.
Lyon at the Methodist church, will preach tomorrow and tomorrow night.

LOCAL LEAFLETS.

Dr. Wm. Hill, who has been confined to his bed for two weeks, is not improving.

The cross on the spire of the Episcopal church has been regilded.

Eggs have dropped five cents per dozen since Christmas, but are still too high for regular diet.

A concrete gutter reaching from J. T. Wall & Co.'s to Frankel's has been made.

To-morrow is communion day at the First Presbyterian church.

The furniture for the new bank has arrived and the vault front is being put in position.

Senator Paynter is a cousin of the Rev. Paynter, who was pastor of the Ninth Street Presbyterian church here many years ago.

The stores have begun closing at the usual early hour again.

There are more groceries here now than have ever been known before.

The front woodwork and furniture of the new City Bank are of cherry and look beautiful.

Mr. Palmer says he is an immersed shouting Presbyterian and Mr. Card is a member of the Methodist church.

VASSAR GIRL SERVANT

Who "Hired Out" Rather Than Wed Riches Gets $300,000.

Pittsburg, Jan. 3.—Miss Katherine Gray, a graduate of Vassar College, who preferred to hire out as a family servant rather than marry a rich old man she did not love, and who is a daughter of the late Senator Asbury Gray, of Virginia, yesterday was apprised that her father's fortune, lost or stolen when he died, twenty-seven years ago, had been recovered and that it was all hers.
Miss Gray is at present employed as a house servant by E. W. Bausman, Secretary of the Vesto Coal Company. She will go to Washington on Monday to make what arrangements are necessary to place herself in possession of an estate worth $300,000.

RADIO-ACTIVITY

Subject of Able Paper by Mr. Hamlett.

The Athenaeum met Thursday night at Hotel Latham with nineteen of the thirty members present. Prof. Edmund Harrison was granted further time on his paper, "Bibliana," and put on the April program.

Prof. Barksdale Hamlett read a profound and carefully prepared article on Radio-Activity, which called forth an interesting scientific discussion.

Dr. Manning Brown resigned his membership. The filling of the vacancy created was postponed.

The meeting was a very enjoyable one, the usual excellent dinner being served in the ordinary.

TOBACCO CONTRACTS.

Association Will Make Them On January 15th.

On Monday, Jan. 15th at 10 o'clock a. m., every man who has applied for a contract to prize association tobacco in Christian county is requested to meet me at the court house, where the contracts will be issued.

W. W. RADFORD,
County President.

Cayce Destroyed By Fire.

The entire business portion of Cayce, a village near Hickman, was destroyed by fire Monday night. The fire originated, it is supposed, from an oil lamp explosion in Johnson's store, and this, with Naylor & Campbell's, (the latter also a drug store), were burned. The loss is estimated at $37,000, partly covered by insurance. Two dwellings were also burned.

21 Miners Entombed

Twenty-one miners, three white and eighteen colored, were entombed by a gas explosion in a coal mine at Coaldale, W. Va., and all are believed to have perished. One man was blown out of the mine a distance of several hundred feet from the mouth of the shaft by the force of the explosion.

OFFICER HORD.

Condition Much Improved and He May Recover.

The condition of Officer Chas. E. Hord, who accidentally shot himself Wednesday morning, was so much improved yesterday as to hold out strong hopes of his recovery. It has been ascertained by his physicians that the ball went through his lungs and not through his bowels, and did not touch a vital spot. If he escapes pneumonia, there is a good chance for him to get well. He did not rest well Thursday night, but was better yesterday than at any time before. He is still at the city building and is being well cared for by Mr. Drake, who has charge of the city jail. His wife has been with him since the accident.

His place on the force has been temporarily filled by the appointment of Joe P. Claxton.

Little Remains of Buildings And Material of the St. Louis Exposition.

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—The Louisiana Purchase Exposition is almost a matter of history. The diplomas are all distributed with a few scattering exceptions and the medals are now being sent out by Secretary Stevens, who still retains an office in the Art Building with about fifteen clerks and other employees to assist him. The medals are much admired. They are made of a metallic patented composition called "Seville Gold," manufactured in sheets at Waterbury, Conn., and sent to the mint at Philadelphia where the medals are stamped from artistic dies. They are not round as medals usually are, but are shaped like an irregular triangle and bear a design representing an eagle, with outstretched wings and a pair of queer looking fishes on one side, while on the other side are two thinly clad ladies intended to represent industry and art. The composition is a form of dull bronze which keeps its lustre. The management here has been more fortunate than at Chicago, for it is nearly two years ahead in the matter of medals and diplomas.
